Hi Laura. Hope you arrived home safely and Xander is pleased to have mummy home! I've been a bit unwell since I got home! Yuk.
I have asked Patrick to get an official legal opinion on the tactic we are proposing with CRB and he will also liaise with you on this. Please call me back on this. We would like you to call her (record it) and say you are going to see X this coming Fri. Ask her to meet you at your parents home on Wednesday this week. If she agrees I will come to see you tomorrow to prepare with you. As long as it's legal you have nothing to fear - I won't ever put you in that position and I think you know that. However this individual needs to be dealt with for everyone's sake
