KUALA LUMPUR: The Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) has issued an alert to Interpol after issuing warrants of arrest against fugitive businessman Low Taek Jho (Jho Low) and PetroSaudi International Ltd (PSI) directors Patrick Mahony and Tarek Obaid after they were charged in absentia in a court on Monday.

The MACC charged the three men for allegedly engaging in criminal conspiracy involving former premier Datuk Seri Najib Razak and 1Malaysia Development Bhd (1MDB).
